What is your first love?

This week I have attended four public meetings at Terra Sancta with school parents or donors. We are inviting various groups to see the facility which is nearing completion. People are excited as they see the transformed buildings.

It is late Thursday night as I write this. The week has been long, and the time and energy that so many have invested in Terra Sancta have caused me to think about the reason behind such effort. I have a growing sense that this is God's work, not merely a school or diocesan project. And I find the drive to push on because I know that we are doing something that will bring many others to a deeper union with God.

As I thought of this, I recalled a short piece written by Fr. Pedro Arrupe, SJ who was the Father General of the Jesuits. Our lives can get so busy, and in the busyness we give our energy to the things we love most. Fr. Arrupe's first love was God. He states this so eloquently.

Fall in Love

Nothing is more practical than finding God, than falling in Love
in a quite absolute, final way.
What you are in love with,
what seizes your imagination, will affect everything.
It will decide
what will get you out of bed in the morning,
what you do with your evenings,
how you spend your weekends,
what you read, whom you know,
what breaks your heart,
and what amazes you with joy and gratitude.
Fall in Love, stay in love,
and it will decide everything.

In Christ, Fr. Steve

Life Teen Parental Notice

This week we explained the Holy Spirit's active role in the Church and in the lives of each member of the Church. Your child will have an opportunity to be commissioned as an apostle who will continue the mission of the Church with the help of the Holy Spirit. Here are a few questions to discuss with your teens:

1. When was the Holy Spirit finally revealed to the whole world?
2. How do we see the Holy Spirit working in the Church?
3. Were you moved to do anything different after the commissioning?

High School Mission Trip

OLBH is organizing a Mission Trip this summer to Denver, Colorado for the High School Youth (incoming 9th graders as of 2012) in our diocese. Registration forms are in the gathering area with fee and payment schedule and will soon be on our website at olbh.org. As usual, we will fundraise to try to pay for half of the fee. We will be having a meeting at the end of January once registrations are collected. Please contact Teresa Thompson if you have any questions.

Life Night Cancelled ~ February 5th

SPROUTS / Edge / Life Teen / Adult Life will all be cancelled on Sunday, February 5th due to the Super Bowl. Enjoy your weekend off!

Shrove Tuesday Breakfast

Lent is just around the corner and our parish has a tradition of celebrating Fat Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, in style. We will again offer a Shrovetide pancake breakfast in St. Joseph's Hall from on Tuesday February 21st from 6:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. There will be many options for self-indulgence, such as topping off your pancakes with whipped cream and chocolate chips. Come before work or school and celebrate Shrove Tuesday with us. Bring on the pancakes!

Knights of Columbus Hot Line

The Knights of Columbus was founded upon principles of CHARITY, UNITY, FRATERNITY, and PATRIOTISM. If you are a single parent, widowed, or elderly and feel alone or that you just need some extra help (household repairs, a ride to medical appointments, etc.), please call Armando, 432-294-1162 or John, 786-1207 at the Knights of Columbus Hot Line. They will arrange for the KC's to offer the needed assistance.

Diocesan Social Justice Commission

"By following Jesus' new Commandment of unselfish love, our lives can be richly fulfilling, and marked by joy and peace. In contrast, treating others as either means or obstacles to one's self-serving goals, while never learning to love generously, is an impoverished way to live."

Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Chairman, Committee on Pro-Life Activities, USCCB, Statement for Respect Life Month, September 26, 2011, www.usccb.org

Packing Hope

The Rapid City Catholic School System is currently in the middle of its 5th annual Packing Hope fundraising campaign. The purpose this program is to answer Christ's call to help the poor and vulnerable by bringing hope to our hungry brothers and sisters. Feed Just One is a non-profit organization from Iowa that distributes highly nutritious food to starving children in the U.S.A. and around the world. With the money we raise through fundraising, we purchase meal ingredients in bulk from Feed Just One and then we combine the ingredients into individual packages that we ship to needy children. Our school and parishes have donated close to $15,000 annually, and we usually pack close to 140,000 meals (each STM/SES student is asked to donate $16). Please prayerfully consider donating to this cause. Donations, in care of STM Packing Hope, are being received on February 25th & 26th at Our Lady of the Black Hills or any time before or after that date in the STM Office, 300 Fairmont, RC, SD 57701. Also, we invite you to stop by the SES gym on March 30th and share in the process as we pack food. Thank you for your support and prayer.

Catholic Social Services 2012 Ash Wednesday Appeal

22,000 persons in our diocese sought help through Catholic Social Services last year. The annual Ash Wednesday Collection taken on Feb 22, 2012 allows Catholic Social Services to provide services to people in need, regardless of ability to pay. Your continued generosity allows us to serve more people each year. Together, we can make a difference.

For the Ride Home

By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. (Deuteronomy 18:15)
- If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Psalm 95:8)
- I should like you to be free of anxieties (1 Corinthians 7:32)
- The people were astonished at his teaching, (Mark 1:22)

Reflection

- When do you hear the Lord's voice?
- How free are you from unnecessary anxiety?
- What is astonishing in Jesus' teaching?

Francis gestured, danced, laughed, and sang; felt the Earth in his skin and bones; talked with Jesus; enjoyed the companionship of his brothers and preached repentance in towns along the way. From the time of his conversion, he envisioned himself as a troubadour of Christ. On occasion he would pick up a stick and, imagining that he was playing a violin, singing about his God. He refused to suppress the energy of his soul and coaxed his brothers to sing so that they would awaken the spirit of joy in the hearts of listeners. (St. Francis of Assisi)[1]

Religious Leaders Join Together in Support of Marriage, Religious Liberty

WASHINGTON—Leaders of some of the largest religious communities in the United States have joined together in an open letter to all Americans to voice their shared concern for marriage and religious freedom. The letter, titled "Marriage and Religious Freedom: Fundamental Goods That Stand or Fall Together," was released January 12. It can be found at www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/promotion-and-defense-of-marriage/ecumenical-and-interreligious-activities.cfm. Signatories include leaders from Anglican, Baptist, Catholic, Evangelical, Jewish, Lutheran, Mormon, and Pentecostal communities in the United States.

Cardinal-designate Timothy Dolan, archbishop of New York and president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, said, "Marriage and religious liberty are at a crisis point in the United States. . . . anyone truly concerned with religious freedom must also be a defender of marriage's perennial definition."

The leaders wrote: "We believe the most urgent peril is this: forcing or pressuring both individuals and religious organizations—throughout their operations, well beyond religious ceremonies—to treat same-sex sexual conduct as the moral equivalent of marital sexual conduct. There is no doubt that the many people and groups whose moral and religious convictions forbid same-sex sexual conduct will resist the compulsion of the law, and church-state conflicts will result."

They added that "these conflicts bear serious consequences." "They will arise in a broad range of legal contexts, because altering the civil definition of 'marriage' does not change one law, but hundreds, even thousands, at once. By a single stroke, every law where rights depend on marital status—such as employment discrimination, employment benefits, adoption, education, healthcare, elder care, housing, property, and taxation—will change so that same-sex sexual relationships must be treated as if they were marriage. That requirement, in turn, will apply to religious people and groups in the ordinary course of their many private or public occupations and ministries—including running schools, hospitals, nursing homes and other housing facilities, providing adoption and counseling services, and many others," they said.

The leaders warned that redefining marriage has consequences for the religious freedom of all Americans and urged civic leaders to defend marriage so as also to defend religious liberty. "We especially urge those entrusted with the public good to support laws that uphold the time-honored definition of marriage, and so avoid threatening the religious freedom of countless institutions and citizens in this country," the religious leaders said.

The release of the letter comes days before the presidential proclamation for Religious Freedom Day (January 16) and a few weeks before World Marriage Day (February 12) and National Marriage Week USA (February 7-14).

CSS Seeks Nominations for 2012 Founder's Award

In 2010, the Catholic Social Service Board of Directors created the Founder's Award to honor individuals, organizations and communities who exemplify our founder, Msgr. William O'Connell. This Award is presented at the CSS Annual Meeting. SELECTION PROCESS: Candidates may be formally nominated only by CSS Board Members, who may also seek input from others, and present their candidate's name, along with a one-page statement outlining their candidate's qualifications to the Selection Committee. QUALIFICATIONS: The CSS Founder's Award honors an individual, organization or community who has dedicated time, talent, and resources to helping the poor, disenfranchised and suffering of western South Dakota and who exemplifies the spirit of our founder, Msgr. William O'Connell. PREVIOUS FOUNDER'S AWARD HONOREES: 2010 Msgr. William O'Connell, 2011 Archbishop Charles Chaput, 2012 to be decided. SUBMIT YOUR SUGGESTION FOR THE 2012 HONOREE: If you would like to submit the name of a potential candidate to the CSS Board for their consideration, please outline a one-page listing of the candidate's qualifications and send to: David DiMaria, President; Catholic Social Services; 918 – Fifth Street; Rapid City, SD 57701 by March 1, 2012.

DIOCESE OF RAPID CITY

Faith: Anchored in Jesus, Alive in Mission

OFFICE OF BISHOP

January 13, 2012

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The Catholic Church has a rich history in the United States. Today, we continue to build the Church by the witness of our lives as baptized Catholics.

Soon you will be asked by your parish to participate in the Annual Collection for the Black and Indian Missions. Your contributions support missionaries here in the United States who are evangelizing in the Black and Indigenous Catholic communities. Your monetary sacrifices assist in continuing the mission of Jesus Christ in many ways, including mission schools, religious education programs, ministry training and the purchase of catechetical materials and bibles. Money from this collection is returned to our diocese to help with our ministry on the five Native American reservations of western South Dakota.

Our theme for the 2012 collection echoes the recent announcement of Pope Benedict XVI of a special Year of Faith. The theme is Faith: Anchored in Jesus, Alive in Mission. Evangelization efforts among African Americans, Native Americans, Eskimo and Aleut communities, churches and schools depend on the annual evangelization grants to continue building their Christian communities and sharing the joy of knowing Christ. Your mission efforts at home have a huge impact on the Church of the United States.

The 2012 National Black and Indian Mission collection will take place in the Diocese of Rapid City the weekend of February 11-12, 2012. We evangelize by the witness of our faith and by our sacrifice for others, including the Black and Indian Missions. Together we announce the Good News of Jesus Christ.

I ask everyone in the Rapid City Diocese to consider making a sacrificial gift to the 2012 Annual Black and Indian Mission Collection. May God bless you for your generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Robert D. Gruss
